

Neighborhood Networks Presents the

2nd Annual Conference for Persons With Felony Convictions

Come be rejuvenated, inspired, motivated, informed and get connected to resources that will help you

- When? Saturday, October 24, 2009
- Where? Scott United Methodist Church
2352 Dr. Andrew J. Brown Ave.
Indianapolis, IN
- What Time? 9:30—10:00 a.m.
Registration/Sign-in 10 a.m.— 12:30 p.m.
Speakers/Panel
(refreshments will be served)
- Why? You will leave encouraged,
informed, and connected to resources

- Featuring Kemba Smith—convicted of a federal drug offense and sentenced to a mandatory 24 years. Hear her story of faith and victory.

and

- A panel of local businessmen who have pressed beyond the stigma of being an ‘ex-offender’ and are now in a position to help others

FREE REGISTRATION—NO COST TO YOU!

Call Maxine Bryant at 317-608-3264 to register or for additional information. You must register by Saturday, October 17.

REGISTRATION IS FREE— But you must register!

Connecting newly released individuals to community resources
through neighbors who care!

SPONSORED BY:

